GENERAL OFFICE ORDER NO. 52

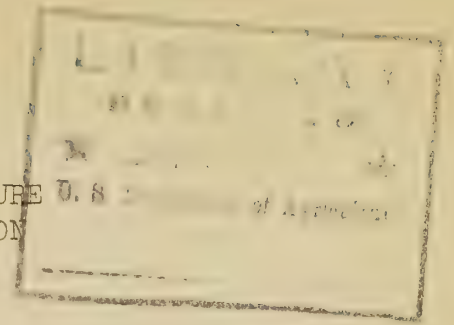

1. County Production-Control Associations are agents of the Federal Government; their books and records are the property of the Federal Government and will not be open to public inspection except as in this Order provided.
2. State officers of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and officers of County Production-Control Associations are instructed to make available to accredited agents and employees of the Collectors of the Federal Bureau of Internal Revenue upon request the amounts of benefit payments or other disbursements made to individuals under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and to give such agents and employees access to the books and records of State officers and of County Production-Control Associations.
3. The Agricultural Adjustment Administration will give consideration, on the merits of each case, to requests of State authorities and others for information in respect to benefit payments made to individual signers of production-control contracts under the Agricultural Adjustment Act.

Signed:

Chester Davis
Administrator.

GENERAL OFFICE ORDER NO. 52 (Amended)

(Includes and supersedes the previous order on the dissemination of information regarding data from adjustment contracts and the names of contract signers or committeemen of commodity control associations.)

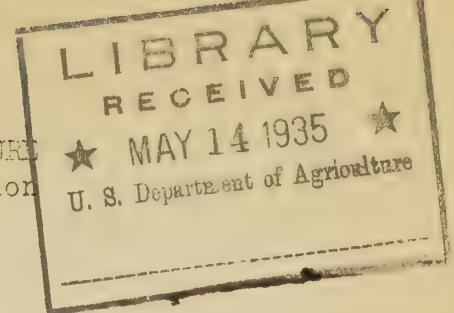

The established general policy is as follows:

- A. Books and records of county production control associations are the property of the Federal Government and will not be open to inspection except as follows: (1) parties to a contract; (2) accredited agents and employees of the Collectors of the Federal Bureau of Internal Revenue, and cooperating Governmental agencies and agencies of State Governments, upon request and with the approval of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.
- B. The names of signers of production adjustment contracts or the names of production control association committeemen shall not be divulged or furnished to anyone other than cooperating Governmental agencies, and then only upon request and with the approval of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

GENERAL OFFICE ORDER NO. 54

The following shall be effective immediately:

1. The commodity sections shall develop all proposals respecting processing taxation, whether for the initiation of such taxes or for changes in existing tax rates and regulations, only after consultation with the Ways and Means Section of the Division of Finance.
2. All contacts with the Bureau of Internal Revenue respecting processing taxation, other than those by the Solicitor's Office, shall be through the Ways and Means Section.

The Division of Finance and the Solicitor's Office shall cooperate with each other in order that no confusion shall exist between them on account of the fact that some problems are both economic and legal in nature.

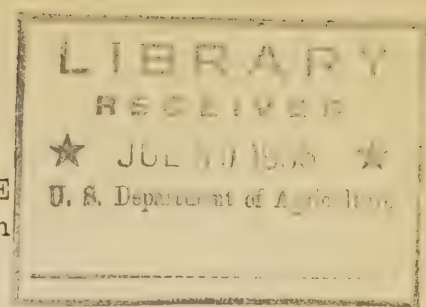

3. All work on the collection of the processing taxes shall be centralized in the Ways and Means Section of the Division of Finance.
